WHAT IS THE STATE OF E-LEARNING? REFLECTIONS ON 30 WAYS LEARNING IS CHANGING

PROFESSOR OF EDUCATION

CURTIS J.
BONK
Indiana University

Curt Bonk has been consistently listed from 2012-2018, by Education Week as a top contributor to the public debate about online education. He will be sharing his thoughts in the TEIS webinar on the emergence of at least 30 different ways in which learning is changing—for instance, it is becoming increasingly collaborative, global, mobile, modifiable, open, online, blended, massive, visually based, hands-on, ubiquitous, instantaneous, and personal.

These 30 learning and technology-related changes reflect three distinct “mega-trends”: (1) learner engagement, (2) the pervasive access to learning, and (3) the customization and personalization of learning. The webinar will be in a conversation format moderated by Faridah Pawan, the TEIS Chair Elect-Elect.
